GREAT GOLF

Ashburnham Golf Club

One of the finest Welsh links courses which celebrated its centenary in 1994 by hosting the Amateur Home Internationals. Testament to the continued superb standard of the course they have been invited to host this prestigious tournament again in 2010 together with the Ryder Cup Wales 2010 PGA Welsh Open.

The expansive course consists of two separate loops of nine holes with the result that there is no crossing and a minimum of congestion.

Fairwood Park Golf Club

This 6,700 yard course has twice hosted the Welsh PGA Championships and is the only course in Swansea that can claim 'Championship' status. Located in the heart of the beautiful Gower Peninsula, this woodland and parkland course must be navigated carefully to avoid the water that comes into play on many of the holes.

Glyn Abbey Golf Club

Langland Bay Golf Club

Formed in 1904, Langland Bay Golf Club is ideally located over lush meadowland across sprawling clifftops. The views from the course take in two of its finest bays, Langland and Caswell. Correct club selection is vital with compact greens guarded well from every angle and as a true links course the elements can add their own challenges.

Machynys Peninsula Golf Club

A modern links style course designed by Jack Nicklaus, overlooking Carmarthen Bay and the Gower Peninsula and already home to the European Tours 'Ladies Championship of Europe', Machynys has already earned itself an enviable reputation as the UK's best new golf course, challenging players in championship conditions.

“Golf is deceptively simple and endlessly complicated; it satisfies the soul and frustrates the intellect. It is at the same time rewarding and maddening – and it is without a doubt the greatest game mankind has ever invented.”
